College of Professional Studies - Associate and Bachelor’s Degree Candidates:

The Academic requirements date refers to the last day of classes for each term and does not necessarily reflect particular academic requirement deadlines specified by your program. Consult with your academic advisor with any questions regarding related deadline information.

Please note that the Submit Application date refers to the latest date you will have access to submit your application via myNortheastern; it does not apply to other related ceremony and printed program deadlines. If you wish to have your information included in the applicable ceremony printed program and be eligible to participate in the graduation ceremony, a completed Graduation Application must be submitted by March 30, 2018*.

When completing the Graduation Application, keep the following in mind:

*All degree candidates must submit the completed application by March 30, 2018 in order:

- to be eligible to participate in the ceremony on May 11, 2018
- to have your information included in this printed ceremony program
- to receive academic regalia for this ceremony
- to be eligible to receive guest tickets to this ceremony

If you fail to complete the application by the deadline date, you must contact your academic advisor in regards to the graduation process. All financial obligations and loan exit interviews, as they may apply, must be fulfilled before the diploma is released.
